Detailed Action

Drawings

The Examiner accepts the drawings filed on September 2, 1999.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-5, 7, 8, 10-13, 16-35, 37, 38, 56-61, 69, 70 and 76 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present invention generally discloses automated financial transactions using an interactive voice response for debiting and settling emergency cash transactions. The prior arts of record include the teaching of Jennings et al (US 5,794,218), Marcous et al. (US 5,650,604), and non-patent literature titled "Electronic Evolution". Jennings teaches telephone-based interactive performance of financial transactions in multiple languages. On the other hand, Marcous teaches electronic transfer of funds using an automated teller machine. Lastly, Article titled "Electronic Evolution" teaches the usage of IVR systems for providing telephone banking services such as balance inquiries, bill payments and transfers between accounts. However, the prior arts of record fail to teach, singly or in combination, automatically initiating a settlement of the financial transaction consisting at least in part of communicating an approval by the currency-dispensing entity of the financial transaction to the caller's home bank via the interactive voice response system and on-line debiting of the caller's settlement account and corresponding credit of a currency-dispensing entity account via the interactive voice response system and the central network.

Art Unit: 3624

The examiner agrees with the applicants' arguments presented in the Appeal Brief of January 21, 2004 and has withdrawn the rejection under 35 USC 102 over Jennings and 35 USC 103 over Jennings in view of Marcous and further in view of "Electronic Evolution". The prior arts of records taken singly or in combination fail to teach or fairly suggest the claimed invention. Therefore, the examiner favors the allowance of claims 1-5, 7, 8, 10-13, 16-35, 37, 38, 56-61, 69, 70 and 76.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
